

Tips of the day, Accountancy

1. Be well-versed with the basics of accounting.
2. As a part of your preparations you must solve CBSE sample papers
3. Weak topics and concepts must be revised thoroughly.
4. Learn and draw formats of various accounts and statements with proper headings.
5. Use scale to improve your presentation.
6. Give narrations with journal entries, show your work notes clearly with appropriate statements.
7. Always do a numerical question from a fresh page, try to complete an accounts on a single page.
8. Make a good use of the reading time to ascertain the level of difficulty of various questions
9. The time must also be utilised to analyse and break up a question in small parts for easy understanding.
10. Always wear a watch to keep track of time so as to finish the paper well in time and do a quick revision before the exam ends.